Response No.1:

Police records are generally exempt from disclosure pursuant to Gov. Code 7923.600(a), which requires local agencies to maintain the confidentiality of investigation reports and records prepared by a state or local police departments. This Government Code section provides that such reports cannot be released, as it contains records of complaints to, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice and any state or local police agency.

The Salinas Police Department did not identify any responsive records.
Any such records would be exempt from disclosure pursuant to Gov. Code
7923.600(A), as records related to investigation files are confidential.

If we can be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,
